

Welcome to the on-line version of The Loop... your source for all things Ansell!

Nov. 27, 2018 Edition

EVENTS:

Mon., Dec. 3rd

Announcing this semester's WCSU Entrepreneurial ARC Panel Discussion, Monday December 3rd, 6-8pm in WS218.

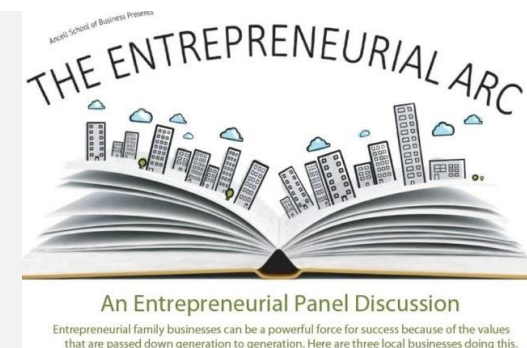

Featuring three local FAMILY BUSINESSES, this semester's discussion is based on the fact that entrepreneurial family businesses can be a powerful force for success because of the values that are passed down generation to generation. What does it take to succeed over generations?

Please consider coming yourself or sending others to learn from these interesting individuals! FMI click here!

Tues., Dec. 4th

What will our students remember in 20 years?

Come join in a Live Podcast discussion on the topic of, "What Will our Students Remember in 20 Years?" Based on an article presented in the journal, Chronicle of Higher Education, this topic will be debated during the event. Sponsored by CELT the podcast event will be on Tues., Dec. 4th from 12:30pm - 1:30pm, Haas Library Atrium. Check out the article for more information on the subject.

Faculty News:

CONGRATULATIONS to Divya Sharma to her several presentations at the American Society of Criminology in Atlanta!

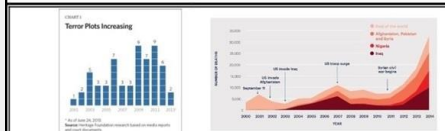

Activities at the American Society of Criminology conference in Atlanta, GA.

- Sharma, Divya. (2018). Policing: Perception, Ideology, and the Complex Reality. Perceptions of Police in the Educational Context. American Society of Criminology, Nov. 15, 2018, Atlanta, GA. Chair and Panelist.
- Sharma, Divya. (2018). Teaching Criminology: Innovative Uses of Technology. American Society of Criminology, Nov. 15, 2018, Atlanta, GA. Panel Chair.
- Shalini, Shweta, & Divya Sharma. (2018). Forced Migrants and Refugees: Resettlement, Rights, and Citizenship in India. American Society of Criminology, Nov. 15, 2018, Atlanta, GA. Research Poster.
- Teaching Good Writing in Criminal Justice Courses. American Society of Criminology, Nov. 17, 2018, Atlanta, GA. Roundtable Discussant.

Winter Intersession Course JLA 347-81 IS NOW ENROLLING – Justice Issues in Domestic & International Terrorism is being offered Online from 12/17/2018 - 1/12/2019. Taught by Prof. Divya Sharma, this course is open to ALL MAJORS with no prerequisites.

WINTER INTERSESSION 2019
JLA 347-81, Justice Issues in Domestic & International Terrorism, CRN 20052

ONLINE  12/17/18 to 1/12/19

Coming Soon to a Mailbox Near You! A survey to help drive the future of LMS systems in the CSU environment. Is it Blackboard? Or a Moodle? It's your chance to give input!

COMING MID NOV.

CSCU LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM SURVEY

Student News and Events:

New Student Resources Available! The Young Library has purchased PrepStep by EBSCO Learning Express, a learning resource platform for students who are preparing for exams like the LSAT and GMAT exams, basic computer skills including Excel or other Office programs, math support, and career information including homeland security or law enforcement. Many resources are available. Please share with your students!

Faculty, Please share with Your Students!

The Career Success Center has several excellent internships listed on WestConnWorks! Internships for Ancell students include:

HR Intern - Boehringer Ingelheim; Accountant Intern - UTC Aerospace; Marketing Interns - Cultural Alliance, and Talalay Global, IT Interns - fme US, and many more! Come log in and see what's available. Remember, internships are the proven way to get that critical first job after graduation, and is the way most employers hire!

Mon., Dec. 3rd

Announcing this semester's WCSU Entrepreneurial ARC Panel Discussion, Monday December 3rd, 6-8pm in WS218.

Featuring three local FAMILY BUSINESSES, this semester's discussion is based on the fact that entrepreneurial family businesses can be a powerful force for success because of the values that are passed down generation to generation. What does it take to succeed over generations?

Please consider coming yourself or sending others to learn from these interesting individuals! FMI click here!

