AGENDA for WCSU Assessment Committee Meeting of April 11, 2013

The Assessment Committee is scheduled to meet on April 11 from 2:00 to 3:30 in White Hall 123A, Midtown Campus.

The primary agenda item is a discussion of proposed University-Wide Student Learning Outcomes (see below).

I welcome other agenda items.

== Jerry Wilcox

Student Learning Outcomes

WCSU students and graduates will....

- be able to demonstrate proficiency in communication, problem solving, and critical thinking as a result of building upon a strong liberal arts foundation
- be prepared to demonstrate proficiency in information technologies
- be prepared to maintain high standards of academic achievement, public and professional service, personal development, and ethical conduct
- develop an appreciation of a rich and diverse cultural environment that allows freedom of expression with a spirit of civility
- be able to take advantage of opportunities for experiential, cooperative, and internship experiences
- be prepared to demonstrate a commitment to public service while becoming productive members of a global society
- be prepared to demonstrate respect for the process of teaching and learning as well as the rights and dignity of members of the University community

Operationalization and Measurement

- Self-reported intentions and behaviors in the annual survey of recent graduates
- Responses of seniors to the National Survey of Student Engagement
- Employer evaluations of students in co-ops and internships
- Performance in capstone courses and other senior-level learning experiences
- Faculty assessments of student research projects