<td>September 19</td>
<td>Matt Sucich</td>
<td>Matt Sucich took his time developing a style and sound that may be borrowed from a wealth of influence but is distinctively his own. Influences range from Bob Dylan, Paul Simon, &amp; Bruce Springsteen to M. Ward and My Morning Jacket. In 2009 Sucich was fortunate enough to support the legendary Levon Helm at his Midnight Ramble in Woodstock, NY, and in 2010 he released his debut album, Jubilation &amp; Jealousy, at Joe’s Pub. http://esmatteo.com</td>

<td>September 26</td>
<td>Amanda Forker</td>
<td>Amanda’s Musical Theater Extravaganza: Part 2 comes a little over two years after her last performance at the coffeehouse. As an undergraduate at WCSU, Amanda studied classical voice and received her Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance in 2011. Since graduating, Amanda has performed regularly at West Hartford, CT’s Professional Theater, Playhouse on Park. She recently moved to NYC and is loving every New York minute of it... so far...Check out www.amandaforker.com for more info!</td>

| October 3  | Post No Bills                                                                           | Post No Bills is a contemporary Country music group made up of all former WCSU students. Started in 2010 by two jazz majors and a voice major, the group has an extensive musical background that they use to constantly enhance and tighten their sound, which means with them, music is never boring.ampo
| October 10 | Edwin and Juan                                                                           | Edwin & Juan return to WCSU and are joined once again by sophomore and piano virtuoso, Anthony Asmar! This pop/folk duo of baritone and tenor voices is excited to fill Alumni Hall with their dulcet harmonies on songs both original and covered. Opening Act: Play It By Ear. |
The Connecticut based duo, Aaron and Andrew, have a diversified appeal that has allowed them to perform at colleges, clubs and listening rooms throughout the east coast. They combine the musical landscapes of Snow Patrol and Coldplay with the lyrical optimism of the Fray and traces of the Postal Service's electronic sounds.

This is the night to show off your talent. Perform yourself (sing a song, play your instrument, do a sketch, tell a joke, or read a poem or short story), or, if you are not the per-former type, convince a friend to go and come in support. The Coffeehouse regulars are always very supportive.

November 14
All Night Open Mic
Various Performers

Come for a special night of a cappella Christmas songs. Get in the holiday spirit with songs performed by WCSU’s all male group The Parallel Fifths, the all female Martini Glass, and by the men and women of Play It By Ear. It’s an Aca-Christmas!!!

Thanksgiving—No Coffeehouse

November 28

If you have never been to a Coffeehouse at WCSU, you should stop by and check it out. It’s every Thursday night in Alumni Hall and begins with one hour of open mic for students, faculty and staff. We have some amazing performers who sign up on a regular basis. The open mic session is usually followed by a one hour Feature Act featuring performers from NYC and the greater Tri-State area.
