STUDENT LEADERSHIP RECOGNITION BANQUET AWARDS

Jesse Lewis Compassion Award

This award is presented to a student whose compassion (actively helping others to solve or overcome their problems or suffering) knows no bounds. This award is in memory of Jesse Lewis, the 6-year-old Sandy Hook student who saved the lives of nine other first-graders on December 14, 2012.

Awarded by: Center for Compassion, Creativity & Innovation

Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC)

The mission of the Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC) is to expand opportunities and support student learning, research and intellectual discourse. By exploring the values of leadership, compassion and creativity across all Student Affairs disciplines and with people of all communities, our LCCC students learn how they as students can practice effective leadership in their current roles, civic life and future careers.

Awarded by: The LCCC program director

Community Service Award

This award is presented to the club, organization or student that shows exemplary effort to volunteer and serve the community around them.

Awarded by: Division of Student Affairs

Hancock Student Leadership Program

(awarded separately)

The Hancock Student Leadership Program was instituted in 2008 and is sponsored by Ellen M. and W. Jason Hancock. The program promotes, fosters and acknowledges a diverse group of student leaders and their ability to inspire, motivate and influence others on campus and beyond.

Awarded by: The program chair on behalf of the Hancock Foundation
