Western Connecticut State University’s Accounting department is currently accepting applications to a part-time, non-tenure track lecturer position. Candidates should have the expertise and ability to teach a course in Auditing and Assurance Services.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess a Masters or terminal degree in Accounting or a related field. On-line degrees must be from an AASCB accredited business school (so accredited at the time the degree was conferred). Foreign degrees must be from a country that has adopted US GAAP and GAAS and from an AASCB accredited business school (so accredited at the time the degree was conferred). Candidates must possess a CPA issued by a state of the United States of America. Candidates must also have significant and current professional auditing experience, at the manager/partner/director/principal level, applying or developing audit standards set by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and/or the United States’ Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. Candidates otherwise meeting the above qualifications who have transitioned out of public accounting, but who remain professionally engaged may be considered.

WCSU is committed to enhancing our diverse university community by actively encouraging people with disabilities, minorities, veterans, and women to apply. We take pride in our pluralistic community and continue to seek excellence through diversity and inclusion.

Application Process: Interested candidates should e-mail a cover letter and curriculum vitae/resume to Professor Thomas J. Monks, LL.M., CPA, Accounting Department Chair at monkst@wcsu.edu. In the subject line, please write “Auditing Adjunct Applicant”. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled.

Western is an Affirmative Action Equal Opportunity Educator/Employer