Western Connecticut State University
Macricostas School of Arts & Sciences
Department of Mathematics
Assistant Professor–Tenure Track
Academic Year 2018 - 2019

Western Connecticut State University’s Macricostas School of Arts & Sciences is pleased to announce that applications are being accepted for a tenure track Assistant Professor position in the Department of Mathematics.

The Macricostas School of Arts and Sciences is home to 13 departments, 21 undergraduate majors and five graduate majors, and offers a variety of ways for students to further their education. The Department of Mathematics offers Bachelor of Arts degrees in Mathematics, and in Mathematics with a Computer Science option, as well as a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics for Secondary Education. The department also offers a Mathematics minor. Additional information about the department may be found at www.wcsu.edu/math/.

Position Summary: The successful candidate will teach courses in all levels of mathematics, as well as participate in departmental and university service by taking an active role in developing new curricula, advising and mentoring students, serving on departmental and university committees, assisting student groups on campus, and engaging in professional activity and scholarship. Standard teaching load is 24-credits per year or the equivalent of 4 courses each semester.

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Mathematics or Applied Mathematics is required. Preference will be given to candidates with specialization or expertise in applied mathematics or computational statistics. Other evaluation criteria will include: teaching experience, a record of (or potential for) scholarship, a record of (or potential for) service to the department and university community; and appropriate experience using technology. Activities that are valuable to the department include, advising and mentoring students, grant writing, revising curricula, developing programs, serving on departmental and university committees, and promoting connections with other departments. WCSU is particularly interested in applicants who have experience working with students from different backgrounds and a demonstrated commitment to improving access to higher education for first-generation and under-represented groups.

WCSU is committed to enhancing our diverse university community by actively encouraging minorities, veterans, women and people with disabilities to apply. We take pride in our pluralistic community and continue to seek excellence through diversity and inclusion.

Salary & Benefits: The salary range is $59,668 – $80,030 and is commensurate upon candidates’ experience. WCSU offers a comprehensive benefits package. Additional information on benefits can be found at www.wcsu.edu/hr/benefits/. There are grant opportunities to support research and conference attendance.

Application Process: Interested applicants must submit a letter of application, which outlines interest in, and qualifications for, the position; areas of teaching expertise and experience, areas of service and/or leadership, a statement of teaching philosophy and a statement of scholarship, a current curriculum vita; and at least three (3) reference letters that comment on the applicant's teaching, scholarship, and/or service/leadership to facultyvitae@wcsu.edu. In the Email Subject Line Reference Search #700-527. All materials should be submitted as PDF files. Applications must be received by April 4, 2018. Late applications will not be accepted.
State and Federal requirements expect that organizations with 100 or more employees invite applicants to self-identify gender and race.
