

Emma Johnson Hollis, CPS

Behavioral Health Director
Western CT Coalition

ABOUT

Emma Johnson Hollis, CPS, is a Behavioral Health Director at Western CT Coalition, where she leads initiatives aimed at fostering wellness and resilience across the region. She supports community organizing within the lens of mental health and supports Local Prevention Councils with grassroots initiatives. As the Project Coordinator for the Recovery Friendly Workplace initiative, Emma assists organizations on their journey in creating supportive environments for individuals in recovery and promoting a culture of well-being within diverse workplaces. Emma also serves as the co-chair of both the Region 5 Suicide Advisory Board and the Regional Opioid Response Fund, where she guides regional efforts to address mental health and substance use challenges.

Additionally, she chairs the Youth Mental Health Subcommittee and contributes as a member of the Drug-Free Schools committee. In these roles, Emma works to enhance behavioral health, resilience, and Positive Childhood Experiences for young people, empowering them to thrive. Emma enjoys spending time in the great outdoors with her family and loves discovering new adventures to experience together. You can contact her at ehollis@wctcoalition.org.
